SUMMER WORSHIP SCHEDULE

Next weekend on Memorial Day we will begin the summer worship schedule as we do each year. This means that the usual Masses on Saturday Vigil and Sunday mornings remain the same, plus an additional Mass at Immaculate Conception at 7:30am every Sunday morning, through Labor Day, inclusive.

MEMORIAL WEEKEND: Next Sunday, May 27th, Immaculate Conception will celebrate Memorial Day with a short ceremony both before and after the 9:00am Mass. There will be reserved seating for all military (please wear your uniform and/or decorations, etc.) and for "stand-ins" (those representing members of the Armed Forces who are not present). There will be name tags and felt pens in the pews. All parishioners are requested to bring a food item for the Social after Mass as well as memorabilia (photos and things) for display. Contact Paul Koenig at 540-854-6074 if you have any questions.

SO WE NEVER FORGET

Congratulations to our eleven high school youth who are to receive Confirmation, which is the "Sacrament of Pentecost", next Sunday afternoon at 2:00pm in our Cathedral in Richmond. May the Holy Spirit strengthen you with His Seven-fold Gifts.

 The lovely flowers at St. Jude this week were donated by Steve & Cindy Honchar in memory of the Honchar and Kreamer Families.

COMMUNITY LIFE TEAM: Thank you for your help with the funeral reception last week. Many hands make light work. However, we still need a few more members to help with our larger activities. Please see me after Mass in the Commons for a complete job description. Your help is greatly appreciated. Rosemarie Ayres

MEMORIAL DAY WEEK-END BAKE SALE

The Women's Guild will sponsor a bake sale on Saturday, May 26th, after the 5:00pm Mass and Sunday, May 27th after the 11:00am Mass. Home-made baked donations from parishioners make this a successful fund-raiser and an easy way for many to support our Church. Baked goods may be brought to the church (Sullivan Hall) on the preceding Friday, May 25th from 10:00am - 5:00pm or prior to the Masses indicated.

This year's Vacation Bible School will be held July 16th–20th (5:30–8:30pm). Our theme is “A Radical Ride on the Wings of Prayer with Amazing Angels & Super Saints”. VBS is open to all rising K–6th graders of both parishes. Registration deadline is Sunday, June 3rd (once again, those registering by the deadline will receive a free T-shirt and song CD). Helpers are needed to decorate, set up and clean up. VIRTUS trained volunteers are needed to work with the children during the week. If you want to volunteer or need more information, please contact Karin Sewell (kmsewell@gmail.com). Donations are also appreciated to make this a success for our children – please see the display in the gathering area. Thank you!

The St. Jude Annual Summerfest will be held this year on Saturday, June 30th. Summerfest is a fundraising effort sponsored by the St. Jude Pastoral Council to support our Parish Capital Improvement/Repair Fund. We are looking for volunteers to work 2-3 hour shifts at various positions. The success of our fundraiser is dependent upon you, St. Jude parishioners, volunteering your time and talents for this one day event. Please contact Paula Staub at 540-223-1105 to sign up! Last year's activities raised $3,506.

ST. JUDE WOMEN'S GUILD YARD SALE:
We will have our annual Yard Sale Saturday, June 9th from 8:00am -2:00pm. Tables are for rent again for $20. Clean out your garage and home and make a profit. We are also taking donations, for the Women's Guild Table, (no clothes please) on Friday June 8th. Bring your donations to the Parish Hall between 12:00-3:00pm. Reserve your table by calling Ursula Canada at 854-6130 or Mary Frances Gerhardt at 894-8655.

Have you left a platter or two at St. Jude Parish Hall kitchen? For the next several weeks these “lost” platters will be on display in the parish hall for you to pick-up and take home. If any are left, they will be sold at the Women's Guild yard sale. Thanks

Bulletin items should be emailed to stjudeminerat@verizon.net by Tuesday evening.
